Boggledybook Book Fair

Dear Families,

As part of our endless drive to raise the profile of reading, we have managed to secure an afternoon visit from the amazing Boggledybook Book Fair on Friday 22nd May.

All books are priced reasonably at either £1, £2 and £3 and will be available to buy during the afternoon and after school. If you would like your children to buy a book during the afternoon, please send money in a named envelope into school with your child. Books will be available to buy after school also if you would prefer to browse the collection with your child. We are hoping the weather will again be on our side and we can run this from the front playground.

I will post further fliers on Class Dojo when they are sent to us closer to the event.

If you have any questions about this event, or any other reading-related concerns, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs E Nile
Senior Class Teacher
